To Whom it may concern,

This letter is to inform you of the circumstances around our being late with our corporate report. I did not receive the first notice for renewal and when I received the second notice I was more involved with my wife being in the hospital then with business. My wife has cancer with no chance of recovery, with that diagnosis I have to be with her constantly, we went on an extended cruise and quite honestly I forgot about business altogether at that time. My apologies for any problems this has caused, but as you will understand I hope, my wife must come first as I don't know how long I will have her with me. Thank you for your concern and understanding.

During this same time period I am trying to transfer her company "The Fabulous Footnotes" to a new person as president as she has not been able to be responsible for her company either. The paperwork for her company will be forthcoming as well. Thank you again.

Thank you for your help during these difficult times,

Robert Paustian
