To Whom It May Concern,

Recently a fellow businessperson made mention of their requirement to file their necessary corporate documents with the state. Realizing I had not filed mine I sought out the forms that have always been forwarded early in the year in order to do so. After extensive searching however I realized that I had not received the forms at all.

I contacted a representative in your office only to learn that both zip codes and addresses for my business is incorrect and may have been the reason for my not receiving the documents.

After some extensive communication with my local post office I was able to track down various parcels of mail waiting my retrieval. These parcels theoretically should have been returned to the sender in order to notify them of the incorrect addresses and re-forwarded. Unfortunately my local post office did not and simply held a great deal of my mail for eventual retrieval.

This mishap has caused an unbelievable delay in my receiving many items of mail including my corporate filing documents. I have never failed to file these documents in a timely manner in the past and would be grateful if under the circumstances the Division of Corporation would wave the late filing fee.

I am aware that it is the ultimate responsibility of the business owner to file in a timely manner but I have always been secure in the fact that I would receive my documents with ample time to file. In the future I will note this commitment on a calendar in the beginning of the year to avoid unnecessary delays.

The address should have read as follows:

Mindz, Inc.
1768 SW Biltmore St.
Port St. Lucie, 34984

I made this correct change after filing last year but apparently it was delivered to a former post box but not forwarded properly.

Again I appreciate your cooperation and understanding regarding this issue. Please contact me if you have any further questions at 561-344-4500.

Respectfully,

Janess E. Murway
