Dear Sir or Madam:

I have received a "Notice of Administrative Dissolution or Revocation" from your offices. I just do not know how that happen. This same thing happen two years ago and it scared me so bad that I made an effort to make sure that it would never happen again. I do not remember receiving either of the documents in the mail. I have looked through all my tax records (I save everything) I just do not know how something so important got past me. Is there anyway it might not have been sent? I cannot believe I could have misplaced it two times. Is there anyway I can have my licenses reinstated without giving you $700.00? My insurance and everything will go down the drain if I lose my company. I promise I will make sure this never ever happens again. I can't lose my company. It's all I have. In these hard times, I cannot think of starting over. I just cannot imagine how I did not send it in. Next year I promise I will wait for it to get here, mark it on the calendar and make sure I send it in immanently. Thank you for you time and patience.

Sincerely,

Sharon Wilhelm
President
