The Board of Directors shall adopt By-Laws for this corporation which may be amended, altered or repealed by the shareholders or directors in any manner permitted by the By-Laws.

ARTICLE X INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

1. The corporation shall indemnify any director or officer made a party or threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding:

(a) Whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigation, other than one by or in the right of this corporation to procure a judgement in its favor, brought to impose a liability or penalty on such person for an act alleged to have been committed by such person in his capacity as director or officer of this corporation, or in his capacity as director, officer, employee, or agent of any other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise which he has served at the request of this corporation, against judgements, fines, amounts paid in settlement and reasonable attorneys' fees, actually and necessarily incurred as a result of such action.

suit or proceeding or any appeal therein, if such person acted in good faith in the reasonable belief that such action was in the best interest of this corporation, and in criminal actions or proceedings, without reasonable grounds for belief that such action was unlawful. The termination of such action, suit or proceeding, by judgement, order, settlement, conviction or upon plea, of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not in itself create presumption that any such director or officer did not act in good faith in the reasonable belief that such action was in the best interests of the corporation or that he had reasonable grounds for belief that such action was unlawful.

(b) By or in the right of this corporation to procure a judgement in its favor by reason of his being or having been a director or officer of this corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise which he served at the request of this corporation, against the reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and necessarily incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action, or in connection with an appeal therein, if such person acted in good faith in the reasonable belief that such action was in the best interests of the corporation. Such person shall not be entitled to indemnification in relation to matters as to which such person has been adjudged to have been guilty of negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the Court, administrative agency, or investigation body before which such action, suit proceeding is held shall determine upon application, that despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification for such expenses which tribunal shall deem proper.

2. Any indemnification under Section (1) shall be made by the corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that the amounts for which a director or officer seeks indemnification were properly incurred and that such director or officer acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the corporation, and that, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, he had no reasonable ground for belief that such action was unlawful. Such determination shall be made either (a) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (b) if such quorum is not obtainable, or even if obtainable, a quorum consisting of shareholders who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding.

3. The foregoing rights of indemnification shall not be deemed to limit in any way the powers of this corporation to indemnify under applicable law.

ARTICLE XI AMENDMENT

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended in any manner now or hereafter provided for by law, and all rights conferred upon stockholders hereunder are granted subject to this reservation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has made and subscribed to these
