Department of State,

There has been a problem this year with our mailing address. We canceled our P.O. box with the West Atlantic Post office. In Coral Springs Fla. And did not receive our notices to pay our filing fee for this year. Why we finally canceled the P.O. box is because we are an hour North now and we thought the department of state had our proper mailing address. Also our customers a creditors have our new address. We kept the P.O. box 2 years after we moved just to make sure there was not going to be any problems with losing any of our mail.

Last year our accountant filled out the form to change our mailing address or so we thought. But it turns out that the post office called my mother who still lives near the office and she picked our mail. I guess it was being put into another P.O. box. When they cleaned it out they found the letters. So she brought them up to me today Sept. 10 2002. Knowing the dead line for the $550 late payment was due by the 13th. that we needed to act on this A.S.A.P.

It states on the letter that if there has been a mix-up to call the 800 number. I spoke to a agent and he explained to me I needed to write this letter explaining what happened. And send a check of the original file fee of $150. I hope you can except this excuse and not charge us the $400 late fee. Our accountant took care of the fee last year when she did our taxes. That is why it did not even cross our mind to check until we received a call from my mother yesterday about the letters. The agent also told us to fill out our new address on the form we have done so. We have never been late before in 5 years. So we hope this is all straightened out now and next year we will make sure to check this out long before May 1st to make sure our fee is paid before the due date to save this from happening again.

Thank you for your time,
Herbert McDonald.
