To whom it may concern:

After talking with one of your representatives, I was told to write this letter of correspondence, along with a check for $150.00, explaining why I had not filled my annual report on time.

The reason for our filing late was because our annual report was sent to the wrong address. If it were not for someone personally knowing me at the post office, I would not have received this 2nd notice.

Enclosed you will find the correct address of where the annual report can be mailed.

Thank you for your understanding on this matter.

Sincerely,

Andrae Botie
