RE: Document # P98000082299

To Whom It May Concern:

I recently received a "Second Notice" for my 2000 Uniform Business Report that states I must pay a $550.00 fee because the report has not been filed timely. When I called your office I was told to explain why this was not filed on time and the penalty would be waived. There are two possibilities why I did not receive the first notice: {1} I am a professional fisherman and I'm usually traveling most of the year and {2} I have moved since I formed the corporation. (The address on the "Second Notice" is correct?)

Enclosed you will find a Check for $150.00 and the 2000 Annual Report. Please note the new address.

I am now aware of my yearly obligation to the State of Florida and don't anticipate any problems in this area in the future!

Thank you in advance for your consideration and understanding in this matter.

Sincerely,

J.R. McGovern
