Dear Ms. Harris,

For the record, I wish to advise that your late policy regarding filing of Corporation annual report is unfair and unjustified. I did not receive any notification of filing and/or receive any form to be completed by request of your department. This is a money making scheme by your department to increase your revenues.

I am an individual businessman that is pleased to pay what is due in a timely manner. If I had received your request/demand, I would have paid the appropriate fees when due. I honestly and truly did not receive your notification and believe it was not sent to me in the first place. I believe your department erroneously did not send out the report to me and now I am penalized for you Departments incompetency.

I recognize, "You can't fight City Hall" and reluctantly pay the state an unfair late fee. I am sure you will not even acknowledge this correspondence and I will never know if you have received it, this further supports my position of Government's continued unfairness to the small businessman.

Glenn N. Haddad
President
