Re: 11-month Corporation inactivity & filing fee

08/10/99

To whom it may concern,

As per a recent conversation with Tammy about my filing fee, I appreciate your understanding that due to a spinal injury in December of 1998 and the flu earlier this year following a long bout with food poisoning last spring, my company Hybrid Enterprises of Sarasota, Inc., of which I am the sole employee, has remained inactive since the date of incorporation (09/23/98). Hospital records are available upon request or audit.

My start-up costs and losses are high, which I have been able to afford with a small loan from my parents. They have included in the amount they lent me a provision for establishing a business account at Nation's Bank in order to pay for the business expense of my $150.00 filing fee, which is included with this notice. Thank you for your patience - I need every nickel saved to get me up and running!

Sincerely,

Tiffany G. Lohr
President
