Re: Reinstatement of New Winds International and Fee Waiver Request

Dear Sir or Madam:

The undersigned attorney represents Mr. Randolph Neuman, President, of New Winds International Inc., a company incorporated on September 28, 1998. As of March 15, 2000, this company has been administratively dissolved for failure to file an annual report.

This letter is to request reinstatement without paying a reinstatement fee due to the fact Mr. Neuman did not receive a notification for filing an annual report at his current business address.

Mr. Neuman is a national of Curacao, Netherlands Antilles. His corporation was formed in order to facilitate his business plans in the United States and qualify him for an L-1A intracompany transferee nonimmigrant visa. Throughout the 1999 year, Mr. Neuman was outside the U.S., but left a business associate in charge of collecting all his mail from his business office at 7003 N.W. 50th Street, Miami, Florida 33166, which incidentally is the same address the Department of State has on record.

While Mr. Neuman is now aware he must file an annual report each year and is willing to satisfy all the statutory requirements for his corporation, he feels that without adequate notice, he should not have to pay the reinstatement fee. A sworn and notarized affidavit is enclosed for your consideration.

For your consideration, it is important to note that after the Florida corporation was formed, Mr. Neuman was not authorized to work in his company because of his foreign status and lack of work visa. The undersigned attorney represents Mr. Neuman in connection to the immigration matter and confirms that Mr. Neuman's authorization to enter the United States to work in his newly formed company was contingent upon receiving an L-1 visa from the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service. Enclosed is a copy of Mr. Neuman's visa approval, which denotes an approval date of December 29, 1999. Incidentally, Mr. Neuman first entered the United States on February 17, 2000.
