To Department of State
Division of Corporation:

I am writing this letter to you because I feel that I am being held responsible for something that I have not received. I ask you kindly that you please waive my four hundred dollars late fee for I have never received a first notice. If I received it I would have sent my payment immediately as I am doing now. I would not want to jeopardize or put my corporation at risk for something so simple to comply with. I ask that you take in consideration that mail gets lost daily and that my response to this file is immediate as it would've been in the first notice. So therefore I am sending my payment of one hundred fifty dollars, and hope to get a response for this letter A.S.A.P.

Sincerely,

Maritza Sullivan,
President
