To Whom It May Concern:

6/50 I am writing to ask for an opportunity to save the late fee for filing this report. I operate a small company & our address has changed in the middle of this year to the current one I am reporting. I did not receive the original 2000 Business Report form, so I am sending in the 2nd notice with a check for ~~$100.00~~. I realize that this is late, but I do not understand why a reply to a 2nd notice is subject to such a heavy fine of $400. As a small company, this amount of money poses quite an unnecessary hardship. This makes it more desirable for me to actually change the name of my company; I don't want to do that, but I cannot pay such a incredible amount to simply maintain my registration of my company name. I would be willing to pay a fine of up to $100, which would be double the original amount due, but a fine of 4 times the original amount seems unreasonable. Please contact me at your earliest convenience, if this is possible. Thank you.

Sincerely,
Matt Bogart, Jr.
