Before there can be a valid sale or transfer or any of the [common] shares of the corporation by any holder thereof, such holder shall first offer said shares to the corporation and them to the other holders of common shares in the following manner:

Within thirty (30) days thereafter, the corporation shall have the right to purchase such shares so offered at the price and on the terms and conditions stated in the notice; provided, however, that the corporation shall not at any time be permitted to purchase all of its outstanding voting shares. Should the corporation fail to purchase the shares at the expiration of the thirty (30) day period, or prior thereto decline to purchase the shares, the Secretary of the corporation shall, within five (5) days thereafter, mail or deliver to each of the other [common] shareholders of record a copy of the notice given by the shareholder to the Secretary. (4) If within said thirty (30) day period, the offer or offers to purchase aggregate less than the number of shares to be sold or transferred, the shareholder desiring to sell or transfer such shares shall not be obligated to accept any such offer or offers and may dispose of all of the shares referred to in his notice to any person or persons whomsoever; provided, however, that he shall not sell or transfer such shares at a lower price or on terms more favorable to the purchaser or transferee than those specified in his notice to the Secretary of the corporation.
