Dear Sean Toner:

In October of 1998, I started my own business in the State of Florida. As a new business owner, I expected a few problems due to my lack of knowledge in the beginning. I found out in starting a new business a good professional relationship with the accountant is necessary. Where I made the error was to take a recommendation from an equipment supplier to use the same accountant that did the accounting for the equipment supplier.

My duties require me to be on the run most of the daytime period. So I depended on the accountant to provide with the information I needed to stay up to date with all paperwork required by local, state, and federal agencies. This procedure did not occur as well as I expected. Computers, Networks, & Communications never received the First Corporation Annual Report. This caused the delay of filing the 1999 Profit Corporation Annual report by May 1, 1999.

After a number of issues, I changed to H & R Block Premium Firm.

I would like to request a waiver on the second fee of the Profit Corporation Annual Report. I am in the very first year of my business and a penalty of $ 550.00 will make my situation difficult.

I have taken a major change in my awareness of all information needed to properly operate a professional business in The State of Florida.

Sincerely,

Rico G. Haney
