To Whom it May Concern,

Please accept this check in the amount $150.00 as our corporation fee. After a lengthy discussion with one of your service representatives, who was very helpful, I was instructed to send this check with an explanation letter.

Although we were aware that we would need to pay a $150.00 fee, we were awaiting the request, as directed by our accountant Brian K. Morgan of Preferred Tax Service. He informed us initially when filing for corporation that we would receive in the mail a green form requesting the fee. It never arrived, nor did any other notices pertaining to it.

The first item from the Division of Corporations we received was the Notice of Revocation. We were very concerned as we had not gotten any other correspondence pertaining to this, and would have gladly paid the original fee. The notice arrived on the 12th of October. Two actually arrived, one wasn't addressed to us. We took the other to Brian immediately and he suggested we contact you as we had been very vigilante in keeping up with all company paperwork.

This brings us to the purpose of this letter. Please let us know immediately if there are any further problems.

Thanks for your time and consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,

Douglas M. Wilson
