To whom it may concern:

Please find attached my Profit Corporation Annual Report 2000. This week I found my 1999 report among other papers and that is how I even knew that this form existed. I called my accountant who said he had forgotten to do it in April. I was extremely upset with him and asked for the blank form so that I could do it myself and mail it right away.

Please forgive the late arrival of this report. I am sorry but I did not know that my accountant who filed this report for me last year was not doing his job. I would be greatly appreciative if this report could be accepted without penalty due to my ignorance. I have no other excuse but ignorance of the report being due at all. I have enclosed the filing fee of $150.00. I am disappointed others who I depended on did not do their job but I myself will do this report in the future. It was received on time previously if that would help in your consideration of my request. Thank you in advance for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Marsha V. Lee
