Article Four

The purpose(s) for which the corporation is organized are as follows:

- a. To engage generally in the restaurant business in any lawful capacity, generally operating, acquiring, owning, and otherwise handling, managing, operating and dealing in the restaurant business; purchasing, preparing and selling, to the general public, food stuffs and beverages (including soft drinks, beer, wine, and liquor, to the extent licensed to sell same) for consumption on the restaurant premises or to "take-out" for consumption off premises; to conduct its restaurant business, and carry on those operations in one or more places of business; provided that, at all times, the corporation and any and all officers and/employees thereof directly connected with any business or any enterprise, including the handling, preparation of food stuffs and beverages, which is regulated, or which require registration or licensing by any department, agency, or instrumentality of the State of Florida, including the cities or counties in which the corporation conducts its restaurant business, any other state or the government of the United States of America, shall comply with any and all such state or federal regulations, registration requirements or licensing requirements concerning the operation of any such businesses.
- b. To operate any and all types of marine businesses, including, but not limited to, the manufacture, charter, lease, and/or rental of any and all types of marine craft and accessories, either by or to the corporation; to take, lease, purchase or otherwise acquire, and to own, use, hold, sell, convey, exchange, hire, lease, operate, manage, pledge, mortgage, and otherwise handle and deal in, and dispose of, as principal, agent, or in any lawful capacity, boat yards, marine accessory and hardware stores, lumber yards, boat storage yards and boat marinas; to engage in the design and construction of, remodeling or reconstruction of, maintenance, alteration or repair of, and to own, - use, hold, acquire, purchase, sell, assign, transfer, dispose of, mortgage, pledge, lease, and generally deal in and with, as principal, agent, and in any lawful capacity, any and all types of boats or vessels; to engage in marine salvage actions of any nature; to sell, lease, charter, or otherwise put to use, products and services of the corporation or others; and, in general, to conduct any and all business necessary to the operation of a business engaged in or associated with exploration and salvage of any nature.

- c. To purchase, receive, take by grant, gift, devise, bequest or otherwise, lease or otherwise acquire, own, hold, improve, employ, use and otherwise deal in and with real or personal property, or any interest therein, wherever situated; and, to sell, convey, lease, exchange, transfer, or otherwise dispose of, or mortgage or pledge, all or any of its property and assets, or any interest therein, wherever situated.
 - d. To carry on a general construction, contracting, building, and realty management business, as principal, agent, representative, contractor, subcontractor, and in any other lawful capacity; to construct, build, purchase, acquire, hold, own, equip, manage, operate, maintain, control, improve, develop, pledge, mortgage, or create liens upon, turn to account, lease, sell, convey, or otherwise dispose of, any and all houses, factories, buildings, or constructions of any nature, facilities, installations, plants, manufactories, machinery, equipment, implements, works, tanks, reservoirs, docks, piers, wharves, dry-docks, bulkheads, construction and repair shops and plants, elevators, terminals, warehouses, markets, storage plants, and all appliances and appurtenances thereof of every kind and character whatsoever to the extent that the same are, or may be, authorized by the statutes under which the corporation is incorporated, and by the laws of any jurisdiction wherein any such works are located.
 - e. To carry on a general mercantile, industrial, investing, and trading business in all of its branches; to devise, invent, manufacture, fabricate, assemble, instal., service, maintain, alter, buy, sell, import, export, license as licensor or licensee, lease as lessor or lessee, distribute, job, enter into, negotiate, execute, acquire, and assign licensing arrangements, options, franchises, and other rights in respect of, and generally deal in and with, at wholesale and retail, as principal, and as sales, business, special or general agent, representative, factor, merchant, distributor, jobber, advisor, and in any other lawful capacity, goods, wares, merchandise, commodities, and unimproved, improved, finished, processed, or other, real, personal or mixed properties of any and all kinds, together with components, resultants, and by-products thereof.
 - f. To apply for, register, obtain, purchase, lease, take licenses in respect of, or otherwise acquire, and to hold, own, use, operate, develop, enjoy, turn to account, grant licenses and immunities in respect of, manufacture under, and to introduce, sell, assign, mortgage, pledge or otherwise dispose of, and in any manner deal with and contract with reference to:
 - (1) Inventions, devices, formulae, processes, and any improvements and modifications thereof;
 - (2) Letters Patent, patent rights, patent processes, copyrights, designs, and similar rights, trademarks, trade names, trade symbols and other indications of origin and ownership granted by or recognized under the laws of the United States of America, the District of Columbia, and any state or subdivision thereof, and any commonwealth, territory, possession, dependency, colony, agency or instrumentality of the United States of America and of any foreign country, and all rights connected therewith or appertaining thereunto;
 - (3) franchises, licenses, grants and concessions.
 - g. To purchase, take, receive, subscribe for, and otherwise acquire, own, hold, use and otherwise employ, sell, lease, exchange, transfer, and otherwise dispose of, mortgage, lend, pledge, and otherwise deal in and with, securities, which term, as used in these clauses, includes, without limitation of the generality thereof, any shares of stock, bonds, debentures, notes, mortgages, other obligations, and any certificate, receipts or other instruments representing rights to receive, purchase or subscribe for the same, or representing any other rights or interests therein, or in any property or assets of any persons, domestic and foreign firms, associations and corporations, and by any government or agency or instrumentality thereof; to make payment therefor in any lawful manner; and, while owner of any such securities, to exercise any and all rights, powers and privileges in respect thereof, including the right to vote.
 - h. To make, enter into, perform or carry out contracts of every kind and description with any person, firm, association, corporation or government, or any agency or instrumentality thereof.
 - i. To acquire by purchase, exchange or otherwise, all, or any part of, or any interest in, the properties, assets, business and good will of any one or more persons, firms, associations or corporations heretofore or hereafter engaged in any business for which a corporation may now or hereafter be organized under the laws of the State of Florida; to pay for the same in cash, property, or its own or other securities; to hold, operate, reorganize, liquidate, sell, or in any manner dispose of the whole or any parts thereof; and, in connection therewith, to assume any liabilities, obligations or contracts of such persons, firms, associations or corporations, and to conduct the whole or any part of any business thus acquired.
 - j. To lend money in furtherance of its corporate purposes and to invest and reinvest its funds from time to time to such extent, to such persons, firms, associations, corporations, governments or agencies or instrumentalities thereof, and on such terms and on such security, if any, as the management of the corporation may determine.

- k.
