Dear Mr. Toner

In regards to the second notice for my 1999 Profit Corporation Annual Report package, I spoke to your office and informed them that I did not receive the letter mailed to me on May 11, 1999, concerning the items left out on my first report. They informed me since my $150.00 fee was paid with the first packet before the late date, that I would not be penalized if I sent in the additional information. This letter is enclosed with the second packet and all the information you should need.

Thank you for you patience and understanding.

Sincerely yours,

Rocky Ford
