Dear Sir,

I had filed for articles of Incorporation on October 23, 1998 because I was trying to buy a business, but unfortunately the deal was cancelled and my corporation was never active. At the present time I found another business, but I discovered that I had to file for corp. annual report. The original report you mailed to me was at the wrong address and I never received it.

Enclosed please find a blank form and a check with the fees, and I respectfully request waiving the penalty because I did not know about annual reports and I had no active business.

Please note that last month I filed amendment for changing the address and deleting ADIBA KORKIS from the corp. and you advised me that you cannot process the amendment until I file the annual report.

Your understanding and cooperation would be greatly appreciated.
