Dear Sir or Madam:

I fear that my initial UBR that should have been received in January 2002 never made its way to my office. It is very possible that it simply got misplaced, misfiled or whathaveyou, but I do not recall receiving it to begin with. The only UBR I have is the one attached which says, "Due by September 13, 2002" and includes a $400 penalty for late payment. As I never did receive the first UBR, I would like to request that this penalty be waived and that you accept both my $150 payment and most sincere apology for this situation.

In the future, I will be more proactive and on the lookout for this UBR at the beginning of the year and if it is not received, will contact you immediately.

Regards and thanks,

Bradley S. Gellman
