Today I received a Uniform Business Report in the mail, forwarded from my previous address. This is the first UBR received this year. We moved the first week in January and apparently the original UBR was not forwarded from the previous address.

I called the number listed on the internet site and was told that, if I filed by mail rather than on the web, and if I explained that I hadn't received the initial report to file, I would not have to pay the $400.00 fine. Therefore, I am doing as instructed.

Enclosed is my check (sans fine) and report. Thanks.
