Re: B.D.C. Carpet, Inc.
Ref. Number P98000093700

Dear Mr. Toner,

We are in receipt of your letter (000A00057525) to the above captioned taxpayer dated November 6, 2000, and for your convenience have attached it to this letter along with our previous correspondence to which it relates.

We have no record of having received the return of the report. Further, having received the cancelled check, we had no way of knowing that the filing was in any way deficient, or that it was not accepted by your department. The taxpayer had every intent of filing timely and completely, as evidenced by his early compliance with respect to the due date, and most certainly would have cured any reported deficiencies in the filing by return mail had he been aware of them.

In light of these circumstances, we respectfully request that you reinstate this corporation without further fee. If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact the undersigned directly.

Thank you in advance for your positive determination in this matter.

Very truly yours,

KOCH REISS & COMPANY, P.A.
