CORPORATE STRUCTURE

In furtherance, and not in limitation of the powers conferred by Statute, the following specific provisions are made for the regulation of the business and the conduct of the affairs of the corporation.

1. Subject to such restrictions, if any, as are herein expressed, and such further restrictions, if any, as may be set forth by the Bylaws, the Board of Directors shall have the general management and control of the corporate business affairs, and may exercise all of the powers of the corporation except such as may be expressly conferred upon or reserved to the stockholders by Statute, or by the Articles of Incorporation or Amendment thereto, or by the Bylaws as constituted from time to time.

2. The Bylaws of the corporation shall be adopted by the directors as soon as practicable after the filing of these Articles of Incorporation.

3. The corporation shall have such officers as may be, from time to time, provided in the Bylaws and such officers shall be designated in such manner and shall hold their office for such terms and shall have such powers and duties as may be prescribed by the Bylaws, or as may be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors subject to the Bylaws.

4. No contract or other transaction between the corporation and any other person, firm, association, or corporation shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that any one or more of the directors of this corporation is or are interested in or is a member, director or officer, or are members, directors, or officers of such other firm or corporation; and any director or directors individually or jointly may be a party or parties to or may be interested in any contract or transaction of this corporation, or in which this corporation is interested; and no contract, act, or transaction with any person, firm, association, or corporation shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that any director or directors of this corporation is a party or parties to or have an interest in such contract, act, or transaction, or are in any way connected with such person, firm, association or corporation; and each and every person who may become a director of this corporation is hereby relieved from any liability that might otherwise exist from contracting with this corporation for the benefit of himself or any firm, association, or corporation in which he may, in any way, be interested; provided that the fact that he or she or such firm is so interested shall be disclosed or shall have been known to the Board of Directors or a majority thereof, prior to this corporation entering into such act, contract, or transaction.

ARTICLE XI.

CORPORATE STOCK RESTRICTIONS

This corporation shall have the power to include in its Bylaws any regular or restrictive provisions relating to the proposed sale, transfer or other disposition of any of its outstanding stock by any of its stockholders. The manner in form, as well as the relevant terms, conditions and details hereof shall be determined by the Bylaws of this corporation; provided however, that no such regulatory or restrictive provision shall effect the rights of third parties without actual knowledge thereof, unless such provisions or a notation on the stock certificates indicate that the transfer of shares is restricted, it shall be plainly written upon the certificate evidencing the ownership of said stock.

ARTICLE XII.

AMENDMENT

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended in the manner provided by law. Every amendment shall be approved by the Board of Directors, proposed by them to the stockholders and approved at a stockholders meeting by at least a majority of the stock entitled to vote, unless all of the directors and all of the stockholders sign a written statement manifesting their intention that a certain amendment of these Articles of Incorporation be made.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned, as Incorporators, have executed the foregoing Articles of Incorporation, on this 4th day of November, 1998.
