To Whom It May Concern:

We at Computer Assemblies, Inc. received our "2ND NOTICE" for filing our annual profit corporation report on 6.29.99, completely unaware that we were mailed a "1ST NOTICE". We never received a 1ST NOTICE and feel that it was perhaps lost in the mail in the process of our moving to a new location. Since we had no idea that the 1ST NOTICE was even sent, we are appealing to you the filing fee of $550.00. We feel we shouldn't be responsible for that amount since we never were aware of the penalty to begin with. We ask that you please empathize with us since we are a new corporation and please wave the additional penalty fee.

Enclosed please find a check in the amount of $150.00, the cost of the filing fee originally. We have made note on ALL our company calendars that this fee is due every year by May 1st and will in the future be prompt with our payment to avoid any late fees, which we would have difficulty paying.

We thank you in advance for your cooperation and understanding. And we hope you will understand that us not receiving the 1ST NOTICE was just a lost piece of mail amongst the juggling of moving to a new office.

Sincerely,

John A. Hopkins, President
