1. The business of this Corporation shall be conducted and managed by its Board of Directors, and such Board of Directors shall consist from one member and not more than eleven members. A majority of the first Board of Directors name below shall have the power to approve and adopt the Bylaws of this Corporation until their successors are elected or
2. The qualifications, time and place of election and term of office of each Director shall be provided for in the Bylaws of the Corporation.

3. The officers of this Corporation may consist of a President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers and agent as may be provided for by the Bylaws of this Corporation, who shall be chosen, serve for such term and have such duties as may be prescribed by such Bylaws.

ARTICLE X: INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS

1. The Corporation shall indemnify any Director made a party to any action, suit or proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgement in its favor by reason of this being or having a Director or any officer of the Corporation, or Director of any other corporation which the Director served as such at the request of the Corporation, against the reasonable expenses, including but not limited to attorneys' fees, actually and necessarily incurred by the Director in connection with the defense or settlement of such action, suit or proceeding, or in connection with an appeal therein, except in relation to matters as to which such Director may be adjudged to have been guilty of negligence of misconduct, in the performance of the Directors duty to the Corporation.

2. The Corporation shall indemnify any Director made a party to any action, suit or proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgement in its favor, whether civil or criminal, brought to impose a liability or penalty in such Director in the Director's capacity as Director or an officer of the Corporation, or officer of any other corporation which the Director or officer serves as such at the request of the Corporation, against judgements, fines, amounts paid in settlement and reasonable expenses, including but not limited to attorney's fees actually and necessarily incurred as a result of such action, suit or proceedings, or any appeal therein, if such Director acted in good faith in the reasonable belief that such action was in the best interests of the Corporation, and in criminal actions or proceedings, without reasonable ground for belief that such action was unlawful. The termination of any such civil or criminal action, suite or proceeding by judgement, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere shall not in itself create a presumption that any Director did not act in good faith in the reasonable belief that such action was in the best interests of the Corporation or that such action was in the best interests of the Corporation or that the Director had reasonable ground for belief that such action was lawful.

ARTICLE XI: LIABILITY

No Director shall be held liable or responsible for action taken by the Board of Directors acting under the provisions or in the manner authorized by these Articles of Incorporation or the Bylaws of the Corporation, nor for action taken by the board of Directors in reliance on reasonable grounds or probable cause for believing that the Board of Directors in reliance on reasonable grounds or probable cause for believing that the Board is acting under the provisions or in the manner authorized by the Articles of Incorporation Bylaws. The defense if any legal, equitable or other action, suit or proceeding brought against a Director, either individually or as Director, because or as a result of any action taken by the Board of Directors, shall be conducted by counsel for the Corporation, unless the action, suit or proceeding is brought by or in behalf of the Corporation. All costs and expenses of a Director in connection with any such action, suit or proceeding not brought by or in behalf of the Corporation, including but not limited to expenses incurred in the course of attending trials, conferences, depositions, hearings and meetings, shall be paid by the Corporation, and in the event of a judgment or decree being rendered against the Director, the Corporator shall indemnify and save the Director harmless.

ARTICLE XII: REIMBURSEMENT OF DIRECTORS

If a legal, equitable or other action, suit or proceeding brought by or in behalf of the Corporation against a Director , either individually or as Director, shall result in a judgement, decree or decision in favor of the Director, the Corporation shall be liable to and shall reimburse the Director for all costs and expenses of the Director in connection with such action, suit or proceedings, including but not limited to reasonable attorney's fees, court costs and expenses incurred in the course of attending trials, conferences, depositions, hearings and meetings.

ARTICLE XIII: BY LAWS

The power to adopt, alter, amend or repeal Bylaws be vested in the Board of Directors and the shareholders, except that the Board of Directors may not amend or repeal any bylaw adopted by the shareholders specifically provided that the bylaw is not subjected to amendment or repeal by the directors.

The undersigned incorporator(s) has (have) executed these Articles of Incorporation this 27 day of October, 1998.
