Dear Sirs:

Enclosed is the application for reinstatement along with a check for $458.75 which includes the 1998, 1999 & 2000 fee of $150.00 plus a certificate of good standing for $8.75.

We would like to state that the original application that had been mailed for those years was never received by us because for some reason our mailing address is incorrect in your records. Since we registered our company through an online source probably there was a mix up in the address. I just noticed recently by logging into your website and searching for information on our company.

Our business is small and paying a large reinstatement fee would be a burden to us. Therefore, we respectfully request that you abate the reinstatement fee and accept the above check to reinstate us in good standing. We formed the corporation in 11/16/98 and did not start operating until mid 1999, we don't remember the company that helped us advising about an annual fee with the state. Please make sure that our address is corrected on your records, and we will make sure to pay our corresponding fee as required.

Thank for your help and please do not hesitate on calling if you need any further information.

Sincerely yours,

Sergio F. Morales

President

PS: I tried to download the reinstatement application from your website, but was not able to. Please mail it to us and we will gladly filled it out and send it to you together with anything else you might require.
