Dear Sir/Madam:

Corporation Name : BRT SERVICES, INC.
Document Number : P98000096796
Form : Uniform Business Report
Year : 2001

We have just received your "Notice of Administrative Dissolution or Revocation" packet in the mail and have researched to see why we received it. We found that our check #7401 written April 12, 2001 in the amount of $150.00 is still outstanding after doing our bank reconciliations and this check was mailed as payment for the Uniform Business Report listed above. The report was enclosed along with the check and we have not received the package by return mail. In addition, we checked your website for current information on our annual report filing and it also shows that the payment has not been received. Apparently the packet was lost in the mail, and therefore, we are enclosing a replacement check. Fortunately, we did keep a copy of our original report, so we are signing the copy with today's date and enclosing it.

Just in case you receive this and our original package eventually, we ask that you will please return (1) one of them to us with the check uncashed.

Your immediate attention and processing of our return will be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Marylyn J. Cavanaugh
Registered Agent
