Dear Katherine Harris:

I am writing to you in the hopes you might be able to help me. This is my first year in business and was not aware of when the uniform business reports where to be filled never received a first notice. It was only when I received a second notice that I called my accountant. She informed me that I should call the number given in the UBR report. I called and was told to write this letter explaining what had happened. Being a new business, I hope you will be understanding with your decision in this matter.

Sincerely,

Dan Scocozza
