Att: Reinstatement Section

Gentlemen:

Attached please find copy of my July 18, 2003 letter regarding late filing and payment of "2003 Uniform Business Report", which apparently was misplaced when I sent my $150.00 check on 7/18/03.

Upon receiving your July 23, 2003 letter (copy attached) I contacted the telephone number mentioned in the last paragraph of said communication and it was suggested to me to proceed in the present manner to request your consideration of my request. I am also enclosing the copy of the 2003 UBR, which was sent to me together with that letter.

Please, inform me of your final decision at your convenience.

Thank you and regards,

Pierre Loubeau
President

Gentlemen:

This is in reference to your notice informing that "2003 Uniform Business Report" had not been received by June 6, 2003.

You are indeed correct that said form and payment were not sent by us. However, we have reviewed our records and cannot find any evidence of receiving original notice, which explains why payment was not made on time. While we agree that this by itself does not excuse our not having filed the report when due, we are requesting that you waive the penalty as we did not purposely failed to do so. Your records will indicate that we never failed to file and pay on time since the corporation was organized.

We are enclosing 2003 UBR and check no. 1295 for $150.00 in hope that our request will be approved and would appreciate your informing us at your earliest convenience if this is acceptable or if you still demand payment of the additional fee.

We thank you for your prompt attention and reply.

Very truly yours,

Pierre Loubeau
President
