Re: P98000097457 [65-0876718]

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

This letter is a request for a waiver of the $400.00 late fee for the attached 2003 Uniform Business Report. This company is run by what would be referred to as a "Ma and Pa" operation; by this I mean with just private individuals as owners.

I am the Controller for this and all the other corporations. Unfortunately, late last year (2002) I was diagnosed with four lesions of brain cancer. I have undergone over 20 radiation treatments and I am still in the process of finishing up chemotherapy that started November 2002. During these treatments, I have had to hire temporary help in accounting to assist me, and my assistant, to keep up with our daily duties. We handle eight corporations altogether.

Sometime during the tenure of one of our accounting temps, all of the 2003 Uniform Business Reports were put in a folder and filed away. It is our usual procedure to enter these bills immediately, noting the due date so that these bills are not late. On Monday, June 2, 2003 I discovered the file with all the renewals inside and was shocked.

Needless to say, I am sure you are aware of the impact 9/11/01 has had on the hotel/small business industry in South Florida and we are now entering into the "off season." Frankly, we cannot afford the $400.00 fine [which also affects an additional seven corporations] because our filings are late, and at this point in time, I am afraid that my job could be on the line as well.

Therefore, I am requesting that the late filing fees be waived.

Should you have any questions or need any medical records to support this issue, please do not hesitate to call me at the above referenced number. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Barbara Rudman
Controller
