DIVISION OF CORPORATIONS

Dear Sir or Madam:

I am writing this letter regarding the filling of our company Uniform Business Report for the year 2002. The company's name is Gana Gana Land Advertising & Design, Inc. and our document number is P98000097595. It is a small design company that has been kept on the side, in order to earn some extra income while still having a full time job else where. For the past 2 years Gana Gana Land Advertising & Design has not made any profit. However I was able to pay the annual report fees for the previous years because I had another full time job that enabled me to cover the expenses of Gana Gana Land. I have been unemployed now for the past year due to a dissability and have not made any profit from the company either. I was not able to afford the filling fee at the time it was due, due to lack of income. I am not able to afford the late fee of $400, neither can I afford for the company's name to be reinstated once it becomes dissolved/revoked.

I had spoken with a customer service representative and they advised me to send a letter regarding my situation along with the $150.00 that was due originally, with the hope that the late fee would be waived. I pray and hope that you will grant this favor and accept the fee of $150.00. I can be reached at this alternative phone number, at home 954-723-9329. Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Adriannie Morgan
President
