The attached 2000 Uniform Business Report (UBR) was referred to our office because we assist the taxpayer in tax compliance matters. Please be advised that the original Corporation Annual Report was apparently mailed to the registered agent's address rather than the address of the taxpayer. It was either not delivered by the post office or was mishandled after delivery. At any rate, my client never received the form.

In an effort to stay in compliance, and after now realizing that there is an annual filing fee, my client encloses the report with the original balance due of $150.

We respectfully request that you accept the $150 check as full payment of the corporate annual fee. We can assure you that this delinquency will not occur in the future. You will note a properly completed change of address on the 2000 Uniform Business Report so as to prevent this type of non-delivery of the original report.

We trust the information we have provided is sufficient for you to accept the lower fee. However, please contact me if you have any questions or if you will require any additional information in connection with this matter.

Sincerely,

R. Keith Walton, CPA
