RE: Annual Report Fee

CORP.'s: Emerald Beach Palace, LLC
Gulf States Land Co., LLC
Spear-It Investments of No. Fl., Inc.

Dear Ms. Hood:

Enclosed please find the annual report fees for the three above named corporations. I realize that these annual fees are due by September 8, however, I respectfully request that the reinstatement fees be waived.

All of the above named businesses revolve around rental and investment real estate. All have suffered extensive property damage due to the recent onslaught of hurricanes. Some properties were completely destroyed.

In the Hurricane preparation efforts and the aftermath (and continuation) of dealing with clean-up crews, insurance adjusters, contractors, and traveling back and forth from the coast, these registration forms just slipped through the cracks. When I visited your website to confirm some corporate information for the insurance company, I realized these companies were erroneously listed as "inactive".

There was never any intent or desire for these corporations to go "inactive" or fail to pay the annual filing fee. I assume you would also need the three enclosed "reinstatement" forms to get us back to "active" status. If anything else is needed, please contact me.

Again, your consideration of waiving these fees under the circumstances is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Jeff Moore
