To Whom It May Concern:

Please find enclosed with this letter our 1999 Profit Corporation Annual Report and our check in the amount of $150.00.

We are writing to beg the States partial forgiveness of the fine levied against us for failing to file our annual corporation report by the proper date. We were ignorant of the filing requirement and assumed a filing would not occur for at least one full year instead of only two month after we formed our cooperation.

Totally unaware of a first notice to file recently we received a second notice associated with the annual filing. Unfortunately, because of the confusion of setting up our offices we must assume the first notice for filing the annual report was lost.

Please accept the enclosed payment for 1999 with the assurance that in the future this corporation will follow the State requirements.

Thank you.

Regard,

J. Brent Wainwright
President
