Dear sirs:

I am writing concerning my corporations, R. Mowder Inc. (Reference No. P98000099394) and R. Mowder Real Estate (Reference No. P98000099394).

For the past two years (2000 and 2001) my annual reports forms have arrived after the date for filing. I took the forms with a check for each and returned them 2 days after receiving them, June 12, 2001. I discussed the problem with Kelly of your offices back in July. She stated that I should contact your offices in writing to waive the administrative penalty. I sent the fees immediately on June 12, 2001 when I received the forms. I had them stamped at the post office.

I have now received back my letter. I talked to Markita of your department on August 14, 2001 about the fact that I don't feel it is fair for a small corporation like mine to be responsible to pay a fine that is nearly 300% what the fee actually is, when I did not receive the form until June. Please take this into your consideration. Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Robert E. Mowder
