The purposes for which the Corporation is organized are:

- (a) To own and operate a bar and nightclub;
- (b) To carry on its operations and conduct business in any state, in the District of Columbia, and in any territory, dependency, or possession of the United States, and in any foreign country.
- (c) To have perpetual succession by its corporate name unless a limited period of duration is stated in its Articles of Incorporation.
- (d) To sue and to be sued, complain and defend in its corporate name in all actions or proceedings.
- (e) To have a corporate seal, which may be altered at pleasure, and to use the same by causing it, or a facsimile thereof, to be impressed, affixed, or in any other manner reproduced.

(f) To purchase, take, receive, lease, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, improve, use, and otherwise deal in and with real or personal property or any interest therein, wherever situated.

(g) To lend money to and use its credit to assist its officers and employees in accordance with Section 607.141.

(h) To sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, create a security interest in, lease, exchange, transfer, and otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property and assets.

(i) To purchase, take, receive, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, vote, use, employ, sell, mortgage, lend, pledge, or otherwise dispose of, and otherwise use and deal in and with, shares or other interests in, or obligations of the United States or of any other government, state, territory, governmental district, or municipality or of any instrumentality thereof.

(j) To make contracts and guarantees and incur liabilities, borrow money at such rates of interest as the corporation may determine, issue its notes, bonds, and other obligations, and secure any of its obligations by mortgage or pledge of all or any of its property, franchises, and income.

(k) To lend money for its corporate purposes, invest and reinvest its funds, and take and hold real and personal property as security for the payment of funds so loaned or invested.

(l) To conduct its business, carry on its operations, and have offices and exercise the powers granted by this act within or without the state.

(m) To elect or appoint officers and agents of the corporation and define their duties and fix their compensation.

(n) To make and alter bylaws, not inconsistent with its Articles of Incorporation or with the laws of this state, for the administration and regulation of the affairs of the Corporation.

(o) To make donations for the public welfare or for charitable, scientific or educational purposes.

(p) To transact any lawful business which the Board of Directors shall find will be in aid of governmental policy.

(q) To pay pensions and establish pension plans, profit sharing plans, stock bonus plans, stock option plans, and other incentive plans for any or all of its directors, officers, and employees of its subsidiaries.

(r) To be a promoter, incorporator, partner, member, associate, or manager of any corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise.

(s) To have and exercise all powers necessary or convenient to affect its purposes.
