July 8, 1999.

Dear Sir/ Madam

We are in receipt of your 1999 PROFIT CORPORATION ANNUAL REPORT and note that the cover page has been over stamped with 2nd Notice.

On receipt of this document we contacted our accountant who explained that a Report should have been issued previously with reference to a 1st Notice thereon. We cannot remember receiving a 1st Notice and cannot find a copy in our files.

The details contained in the 2nd Notice are quite correct regarding the mailing address so we therefore do not understand this omission in our system.

Our Company was incorporated in December of last year and full business did not commence until March of this year when our offices became fully viable and I, as a British citizen, had returned from the U.K. where I had been finalizing business details. It may well have been the case that a 1st Notice went missing during this period had we received one.

Today we contacted your Department by telephone and explained our case. It was their advice that we write a letter explaining our case and enclose a check for $150 made out to Department of State. We hereby do this and hope that this concludes the matter satisfactorily.

Yours Truly

R.N. Richards (Supervising Officer)
