Dear Sir or Madam:

I did not receive annual UBR report for The Gulf Coast Publishing Group, Inc. and another corporation (with the same mailing address) that I'm on the board of. I first realized that I had not received the reports several days ago when we elected to add a new person as a Director to the board. Rather than pay the extra money, we thought we'd wait until we received our annual UBR package... and do take care of both at once.

That's when we realized that we hadn't received the package for either corporation. I contacted the Division of Corporations in Tallahassee and was instructed to download the forms from the web site and that we wouldn't have to pay the late fee this time.

Also, I was told the forms are sent out in January each year. We've always received the packages in the past... this was the first year we've ever had any such problem. Please verify the mailing address with the database records. We'd like to avoid any penalties associated with late fees.

Thank you very much,

Sincerely,

James Galiano
President
