To whom this may concern,

I was advised today by Robin, in your office, to send this letter requesting that you accept the enclosed check for $150.00 as payment in full.

This is being filed late as my mail concerning this was being sent to the attorney who helped me to incorporate my real estate business and I was not aware of the first notice. I have now changed the name of the Registered Agent, to my own name, so that this will not happen again in the future. Had I been aware of the first notice, I would have certainly mailed it in, as I work too hard for my money to let something like that go by.

Thanking you in advance.

Sincerely,

Priscilla Myers
