Dear Sir or Madam:

Enclosed please find the 2001 Corporate Annual Report of Sidney Victoria, Inc., along with their check for $150. They have no record of having received any correspondence from your office regarding this form. This would be the first time they have failed to file this form from their current address and had they received it they would have surely sent it in right away.

Per instructions from your office we received the blank form enclosed and are immediately remitting it with payment. They are a small family owned corporation and are compliant with the IRS and Florida Department of Revenue in regards to all tax filings and payments.

We understand the need to have enforcement and compliance penalties, but feel that it is not warranted in this case. Such an added penalty would be an unbearable burden to this company as their business supports the owner's family and can not afford large unexpected expenses such as this.

We appreciate your kind assistance in this regard and you have our assurances that we will always endeavor to make all future filings and payments in a timely manner.

Sincerely,

Richard J. Gross, C.P.A.
