Dear Sir/Madam:

Please find enclosed a check for $150 along with my information requested for "Life's Too Short, Inc."

While I certainly realize the tardiness in submission, I am also requesting that I may be extended the $150 filing fee, as opposed to the $550. I have attached an article to the explanation following.

My granddaughter had been diagnosed with brain cancer and it has been a most serious and painful family tragedy that we have been dealing with. She is currently is the most critical stage of treatment on a clinical trial basis. In addition to incorporating a business that I had hoped would be up and generating profit to date, it has been virtually impossible to get that going as of yet. We have been totally consumed by this and have had to spend most every waking moment addressing not only the medical side of things, but the personal effects it has had financially on my daughter's family. I have been trying to assist wherever possible. In all of this chaos, I had overlooked this document and placed it in a pile of things to go through. Due to the nature of the family crisis, that pile seemed to be continually delayed.

I apologize for any delay this may have caused your office and hope to now be in a little more organized state to avoid this situation in the future. I ask for leniency only due to the circumstances. Should you need to contact me for any reason, my number is 407-850-2178.

Respectfully,

Suzanne Mercado
