Dear Sir or Madam:

I was in North Carolina with my ailing mother when the annual corporate report was due. I in no way intended not to pay this fee. I am asking for you to consider this a hardship case and waive the additional fee.

I have included a copy of the death certificate. I had to provide care and comfort in her time of need and now that she has passed, I am trying to get my life and business back together. I have included a check in the amount of $150.00 for the regular fee without the additional penalty. I do not believe that my business could endure the strain of an additional $400.00 fee.

Please help me and waive the additional charges. I thank you for your consideration and understanding.

Sincerely,

Barbara Brodnax
President, BTL Enterprises, Inc.
