RE: Request for Waiver of Fees

Upon receipt of the "Notification of Dissolution" we contacted your office and began an investigation. We have found that our original check has not cleared. As the President of three registered Florida corporations, I was shocked to find that all three were not received. We can only assume that the registrations were not received.

As we discussed, we are requesting a waiver of the reinstatement fees. We have not received any of the other notifications that we should have received and we surprised by the final notice. We have checked into the missing notices but have not found any of them to have been delivered.

We have reviewed our procedures for processing these very critical documents and will ensure that these documents are sent in a matter in which we can assure delivery. We thoroughly appreciate your support in this matter.

Sincerely,

Carroll S. Levison
President
