- 11. Preemptive Rights. Any preemptive rights that are to be granted to the stockholders are as follows:
- a) Preemptive and Preferential Rights. Each shareholder or subscriber shall be entitled to full preemptive or preferential rights, as such rights have heretofore been defined at common law, to purchase and/or subscribe for his or her proportionate part of any shares which may be issued at any time by this corporation.
- b) Sale or Transfer. Before there can be a valid sale or transfer of any of the shares of this corporation by the holders thereof, the holder of the shares to be sold or transferred shall first give notice in writing to the secretary of this corporation of his intention to sell or transfer such shares. Such notice shall specify the number of shares to be sold or transferred, the price per share and terms upon which such holder intends to make such sale or transfer. The secretary shall, within five days thereafter, mail or deliver a copy of such notice to each of the other shareholders of record of this corporation. Such notice may be delivered to such shareholder personally or may be mailed to the last known address of such shareholder or shareholders as the same may appear on the books of this corporation. Within forty days after mailing or delivering these notices to such shareholders, any such shareholder or shareholder desiring to acquire any part or all of the shares referred to in that notice shall deliver by mail or otherwise to the secretary of this corporation a written offer or offers to purchase a specified number or number of such shares at the price and upon the terms stated in that notice.
- b1) If the total number of shares specified in such offers exceeds the number of shares referred to in the notice, each offering shareholder shall be entitled to purchase such proportion of the shares referred to in the notice as the number of shares of this corporation which he holds bears to the total number of shares held by all such shareholders desiring to purchase the shares referred to in the notice to the secretary.
- b2) If all the shares referred to in the notice to the secretary are not disposed of under such apportionment, each shareholder desiring to purchase shares in a number in excess of his proportionate share, as provided above, shall be entitled to purchase such proportion of those shares which remain thus undisposed of, as the total number of shares which he holds bears to the total number of shares held by all the shareholders desiring to purchase shares in excess of those to which they are entitled under such apportionment.
- b3) If none or only part of the shares referred to in the notice to the secretary are purchased, as aforesaid, in accordance with offers made within the forty-day period, the shareholders desiring to sell or transfer may dispose of all shares of stock referred to in that notice not so purchased by the other shareholders to any person or persons he may so desire, provided, however that he shall not sell or transfer such shares at a lower price or on terms more favorable to the purchaser or transferee than those specified in the notice to the secretary.
- b4) Any sale or transfer, or purported sale or transfer, of the shares of this corporation shall be null and void unless the terms, conditions prescribed by these bylaws or buy-and-sell agreements signed by the shareholders are strictly observed and followed.
- c) Written Consent. No sale, lease, conveyance, transfer, exchange or other disposition or all, or substantially all, of the property and assets of this corporation, and no mortgage, deed of trust, pledge or hypothecation of all or substantially all of the property, real or personal, of this corporation shall be made unless approved by the vote or written consent of the shareholders entitled to exercise a majority of the voting power of this corporation.
- d) New Issues of Stock. As long as the original incorporators own stock in the corporation, it shall not issue new stock unless all incorporators approve that issue.
- e) Endorsement of Stock Certificates. Upon the issuance of shares, each certificate of capital stock in the corporation shall be endorsed as follows.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the redemption, sale, assignment, transfer, pledge or other disposition of the shares of capital stock represented by this certificate are subject to certain restrictions which are set forth in the Articles of Incorporation and the Bylaws of this corporation, copies of which are on file in the office of the secretary of the corporation, and the corporation will furnish upon request and without charge a list of designations, preferences, limitations and relative rights.

f) All stock of the corporation shall be subject to these restrictions and have endorsed thereon the appropriate notice contained in this paragraph.

g) Other preemptive rights adopted by this corporation are as follows:

12. Other Provisions. Any other provisions shall be as follows:

- a) Dealings by Directors. No contract or other transaction between the corporation and any other corporation, whether or not a majority of the shares of the capital stock of such other corporation is owned by this corporation and no act of the corporation shall be in any way affected or invalidated by the fact that any of the directors of this corporation are pecuniarily or otherwise interested in, or are directors or officers of, such other corporation; any director individually, or any firm of which such director may be a member, may be a party to or may be pecuniarily or otherwise interested in any contract or transaction of this corporation, provided that the fact that he or such firm is so interested shall be disclosed or shall have been known to the Board of Directors or a majority thereof; and any director of the corporation who is also a director or officer of such other corporation, or who is so interested, may be counted in determining the existence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board of Directors of this corporation which shall authorize such contract or transaction, and may vote thereat to authorize such contract or transaction, with like force and effect as if he were not such director or officer of such other corporation or not so interested.
- b) Indemnification of Directors; Limitation. No director of the corporation shall be personally liable to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director; provided, however, that this Article shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director (a) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its shareholders; (b) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; (c) for authorizing the unlawful payment of a dividend or other distribution on the corporation's capital stock or the unlawful purchase of its capital stock; (d) a violation of Conflict of Interest Laws; or (e) for any transaction form which the director derived an improper personal benefit. This Article shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director for any act or omission occurring prior to the date on which this Article becomes effective.
- c) Indemnification of Officers, Employees, Agents. Subject to the provisions of this Article, the corporation shall indemnify any and all of its existing and former officers, employees and agents against all expenses incurred by them and each of them, including but not limited to legal fees, judgments, penalties and amounts paid in settlement or compromise, which may arise or be incurred, rendered or levied in any legal action brought or threatened against any of them for or on account of any action or omission alleged to have been committed while acting within the scope of employment as officer, employee or agent of the corporation, whether or not any settlement or compromise is approved by a court. Indemnification shall be made by the corporation whether the legal action brought or threatened is by or in the right of the corporation or by any other person.

Whenever any existing or former officer, employee or agent shall report to the president of the corporation or the Chairman of the Board of Directors that he or she has incurred or may incur expenses, including, but not limited to legal fees, judgments, penalties, and amounts paid in settlement or compromise in a legal action brought or threatened against him or her for or on account of any action or omission alleged to have been committed by him or her while acting within the scope of his or her employment as an officer, employee or agent of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall, at its next regular meeting or at a special meeting held within a reasonable time thereafter, determine in good faith whether or not, in regard to the matter involved in the action or contemplated action, such person acted, failed to act, or refused to act willfully or with gross negligence or with fraudulent or criminal intent.

If the Board of Directors determines in good faith that such person did not act, fail to act, or refuse to act willfully or with gross negligence or with fraudulent or criminal intent in regard to the matter involved in the action or contemplated action, indemnification shall be mandatory and shall be automatically extended as specified herein; provided, however, that no such indemnification shall be available with respect to liabilities under the Securities Act of 1933 and provided further that the corporation shall have the right to refuse to refuse indemnification would otherwise have been applicable shall have unreasonably refused to permit the corporation, at its own expense and through counsel of its own choosing, to defend him or her in the action.

d) Miscellaneous Provisions:

13. Additional Articles. The corporation adopts the following additional articles, as required by the laws of this state:
