GENERAL PROVISIONS

H99000000302

H99000000302

(a) The private property of the stockholders shall not be subject to the payment of any corporate debts to any extent whatsoever.

(b) The corporation shall have a first lien upon the shares of its stockholders and upon all dividends due them for any indebtedness by such stockholders of the corporation.

(c) Subject to the provisions and conditions of this article, the corporation shall have full power and lawful authority to accept property, labor and services in payment for shares of its capital stock in lieu or cash, at a just valuation to be fixed by its Board of Directors.

(d) The corporation shall indemnify each director and officer of the corporation against all or any portion of any expenses reasonably incurred by him in connection with or arising out of any action, suit or proceeding in which he may be involved, by reason of his being or having been an officer or director of the corporation (whether or not he continues to be an officer or director at the time of incurring such expenses), such expenses to include the cost of reasonable settlements (other than amounts paid to the corporation itself) made with the view to curtailment of cost of litigation, except what no sums shall be paid in connection with any such settlement unless the corporation is advised by independent counsel that the officer or director so indemnified was not derelict in the performance of his duty as such officer or director. The corporation shall not, however, indemnify such officer or director with respect to matters as to which he shall be finally adjudged in any such action, suit or proceeding to have been derelict in the performance of his duty as such officer or director, nor in respect of any matter on which any settlement or compromise is affected, if the total expense, including the cost of such settlement, shall substantially exceed the expense which might reasonably be incurred by such director or officer in conducting such litigation to a final conclusion, and in no event shall anything herein contained be construed as to protect or authorize the corporation to indemnify any such officer or director against any liability to the corporation or its security holders to which he would otherwise be subject by reason of willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence or reckless disregard of the duties involved in the conduct of his office. The foregoing right of indemnification shall not be exclusive of other rights to which any officer or director may be entitled as a matter of law.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned subscriber has executed these Articles of Incorporation this 9th day of January, 1999.
