Re: Senior Centered Care, Inc.

To Whom It May Concern:

It is my understanding that Jennifer Newcombe, a Corporate Paralegal with the Orlando office of Baker & Hostetler, LLP, the attorneys for the above-captioned Florida corporation, spoke with Rhonda of your office today, September 24th, regarding the late filing of the current year's Uniform Business Report. The President and sole Director of Senior Centered Care, Inc., Rhonda Facundus, has been diagnosed with inoperable stomach cancer. She is currently hospitalized and has been very ill and in and out of the hospital since February, 2001. The corporate office of Senior Centered Care, Inc. is located in Winter Park, Florida and all mail is sent to such address. I hold the positions of Secretary and Treasurer for Senior Centered Care, Inc., but live in Marietta, Georgia. Since all of the corporate mail is sent to the corporate office, Rhonda Facundus, who works out of the corporate office, has always handled the Uniform Business Report filings and all other business matters for Senior Centered Care, Inc.

Since Ms. Facundus is the President and sole Director of the business, needless to say, her business affairs have been entangled since the time of her diagnosis. Although her friends and I have been attempting to handle her personal and business affairs since the onset of her illness, I have no recollection of ever having received the Uniform Business Report. In all fairness, however, I should point out that it could have been received and, in the confusion of sorting out her affairs, either misplaced or lost.

In view of the above, Senior Centered Care, Inc. is requesting the State of Florida to waive penalties added to the regular filing fee. I believe the State's records will show that in the past years the reports have always been filed on time and the fees promptly paid. Ms. Facundus would appreciate anything the State can do to accommodate her request for a waiver of penalties.

Thank you very much for your consideration.

Very truly yours,

Jana Luce
