ARTICLE IV.
CAPITAL STOCK

The corporation is authorized to issue 1,000,000 shares of no par value common stock. Shareholders shall have pre-emptive rights.

No stock of this corporation shall be transferred unless the stock shall have first been offered for sale to the corporation, and if the corporation shall fail or refuse to accept the offer, to each of the other shareholders of this corporation. Further, all shares of stock issued in the Corporation shall bear a notation clearly visible on their face that these shares are not transferrable unless and until they have been first offered for sale to the corporation in conformance with these Articles and the By-laws of said corporation.

The offeree shall have an option purchase the stock to be transferred at the following price:

A. At the same price and on the same terms and conditions as the offeror shall have been offered from a third person at arms length, acting in good faith, or fair market value, whichever is less. The offer shall be sent by certified mail to the President or Secretary of the corporation and to each stockholder at the address listed on the Corporations's stock register. C. After the expiration of the option period, no transfer at a price less than has been offered to the Corporation and other stockholders on terms and conditions varying from those shall be valid until the rights shall have been offered to the Corporation and to the stockholders to purchase the stock proposed to be transferred at the precise price and on the precise terms and conditions which were offered to or by the stockholder who proposes to transfer his stock.

D. The stockholders in this Corporation may make agreements, either in the by-laws or by a shareholder agreement, between themselves relative to the purchase, among themselves, of the stock of this Corporation in the event of death, insanity, retirement or disability of any stockholder's spouse and linear descendants.
