To whom it may concern,

This is my first time having to do this UBR form. I was unaware that we were required to do this. When I received this form I called your office for instruction of what it was for and was told that I need to "Register with the State" and that I should have received this form in January. Unfortunately I just received it yesterday. Due to the circumstances and that this is my first time, I pray that you will forgive me the additional $400.00 and accept the enclosed check for $150.00 which I understand would have been the fee if I had reported before May - which I'm sure I would have done had I received the form.

With My Sincere Apologies
and Much Appreciation

Melissa Tullous
