Dear Sir or Madam:

I just received a form 2000 Uniform Business Report, due September 13, 2000.

Please be advised that New Century Multimedia filed this in a timely fashion with payment. The form was returned to me because, as the letter stated, it needed the taxpayer identification number and the signature apparently was not recognized. I immediately returned this information to you. A photocopy of my response is included. You will see that it refers to my signature as being the same as the president, which I am. The TIP also was included. My discussions with the Department of State indicated that there is no record of this copy. Let me assure you that I sent this back within a few days of receiving it.

Please let me know if there are other steps I should take.

Sincerely,

Larry Schnell
president
