-----------------	--

Article X.
Cumulative Voting

Each shareholder entitled to vote shall have a number of votes equal to the number of voting shares held by the shareholder multiplied by the number of directors that the shareholder may elect. The shareholder may cast all such votes for a single candidate or may distribute them among some or all of the candidates. The exercise of this right shall be termed cumulative voting.

Article XI.
Amendment

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended in the following manner provided by law. Every amendment shall be approved by the Board of Directors, proposed by them to the stockholders and approved at a stockholder's meeting by at least a majority of the stock entitled to vote, unless all of the directors and all of the stockholders sign a written statement manifesting their intention that a certain amendment of these Articles of Incorporation be made.
